

Swedish story (1)

Stories of the world. Swedish story, Rooster and Chicken.

The Rooster and the chicken Swedish story

A rooster and a chicken left a day to catch nuts. rooster remained him itself stalled two nuts in the throat, so ran the risk to be drowned. The chicken ran toward a fountain and said:

— ¡Dear fountain, please give me water! The water is for the rooster, that is drowning.

The fountain answered:

—Go to the "Tilo" and give me leaves

The chicken ran toward the Tilo and said:

— ¡Dear Tilo, please give me leaves! I will give them to the fountain, the fountain will give me water and I will give it to the rooster, that is drowning.

But the Tilo responded:

—Go to the Maiden and give me a tie.

Then the chicken ran toward the maiden and told him:

— Dear Maiden, please, give me a tie! I will give it to the Tilo, the Tilo will give me leaves, I will give them to the fountain, the fountain will give me water and I will give it to the rooster, that is drowning.

But the Maiden said:

— Go to the Shoemaker and give me some shoes.

Then the chicken ran toward the shoemaker and told him:

—Dear Shoemaker, please, give me some shoes! I will give them to the maiden, the maiden will give me a tie, I will give it to the Tilo, the Tilo will give me leaves, I will give them to the Fountain, the fountain will give me water and I will give it to the rooster, that is drowning.

—Go to the Pig and give me some piglets —the shoemaker said.

The chicken ran toward there and said:

—Dear pig, Please give me some piglets! The piglets will be given to the shoemaker, the shoemaker will give me some shoes, the shoes will be given to the maiden, the maiden will give me a tie, I will given it to the Tilo, the Tilo will give me leaves, I will give them to the fountain, the fountain will give me water and I will give it to the rooster, that is drowning.

— Go to the granary and give me straw! -The pig said.

Then the chicken was there and said:

—Dear Granary, Please give me straw! I will give it to the pig, the pig will give me some piglets, I will be give them to the Shoemaker, the shoemaker will give me some shoes, I will give them to the Maiden, the Maiden will give me a tie, I will give it to the Tilo, the Tilo will give me leaves, I will give them to the Fountain, the Fountain will give me water and I will give it to the Rooster, that is drowning.

—Good, there you have something of straw -said the granary.

And then the Pig gave him some bristles and the Shoemaker gave him some shoes and the Maiden gave him a tie and the Tilo gave him leaves and the Fountain gave him water. But when the chicken arrived where was the Rooster, this already was dead, so had to be drunk she all the water.

Addapted by David Sánchez Rodríguez CEIP Galicia